READINGS FOR THE SOUL

Book reviews by Lynne Jasames

By Lynne Jasames, MBA,
Author, Mentor
Special to The Answer

Reverend, John L Langford's, For the Love of Money (Is the Root to all Evil):

Tells the story of why a young man vowed to never work after the tragic death of his hard working grandfather. The story demonstrates how a young man with no male guidance uses pimping as a way to avoid working. He created a life of hustling (pimping, drug selling, and gambling) as a way to make money and because he loved money he found himself retuning back to a life of hustle after being incarcerated and addicted to drugs multiple times. After losing everything, during his final drug addiction the spirit of God was able to deliver him and save him from returning to a life of hustling. By turning his life over to God he demonstrates how through God's blessings he was able to avoid becoming a hustler ever again.

C M Jones, I Still Do (Nothing is too Hard for God):

Tells the story of how no three long time friends get through their past and present experiences with each other's support and through a relationship with God. It demonstrates that no matter how well off a person is, a person's past can show up in their future and affect the decisions they make. By sticking by each, being able to confront past issues, not being afraid to let go of the past, and praying they were able to move forward in life for themselves and their families.

Paulette Harper's, That was Then, This is Now (this Broken Vessel Restored):

Tells the story of how (over years) a woman that was suffering from depression, low self esteem, and thoughts of suicide uses spiritual explanations, definitions, and scriptures to explain how she was able to overcome and is a living testimony to making it through. She provides details and specific incidents in her life. Parallels between real life experiences and the word of God are used to explain spiritually why things happen. The book advises its readers to develop an understating for God's purpose and suffering, recognizing how we respond, not allowing the spirit to be corrupted, applying the word of God to your life, not to become bitter with God, get delivered from pride and strong holds with Gods help, be mindful where your heart is, forgiveness, trust in the power of God, praise God at all times, and know God's destiny for your life will be fulfilled. Scriptures are used all throughout the book.
